

Practical information

Please find some information for your travel in Strasbourg to attend to the workshop Nanosciences in UHV based Scanning Probe Microscopy (NS-CPU)

1/ Workshop address :

The workshop will take place at the European Doctoral College : 48 boulevard de la Victoire in Strasbourg.
(GPS Coord. : 48.58169970751068, 7.768373939261272)

If you join by car, there are paid parking places at « rue de l'Université », above less than 5 min by feet.

2/ Access :

If you travel by train : you could raise the workshop place by tram from Strasbourg train station.
(You could by bus tickets on the bus ticket vending machine or by the « CTS Strasbourg » App.)

Take tram C from the station, towards Neuhof R. Reuss.
Get off at the Observatoire stop.
Journey time: 15 to 20 minutes

The European Doctoral College is close to the tram station.

If you travel by plane, there is some direct train line between the airport and the station. (There is a train station at the airport.)

3/ Accommodation

Participants will be spread across 2 hotels :

- Hôtel de l'Esplanade, 1 Boulevard Leblois - 67000 Strasbourg / +33 (0)3 88 61 38 95
<https://www.hotel-esplanade.fr/> - (Coord. GPS : 48.581480334745216, 7.769815295086516)
- Hôtel de l'Ill, 8 rue des Bateliers - 67000 STRASBOURG / +33 (0)3 88 36 20 01
<https://www.ill.najeti.fr/> - (Coord. GPS : 48.580812116641134, 7.755059054600993)

4/ Meals

Dinner on November 3rd, and lunches on November 4th and 5th, will be served buffet-style at the workshop venue.

Dinner on November 4th will be held at the restaurant :
« Le Gruber », 11 Rue du Maroquin, 67000 Strasbourg
(GPS Coord.: 48.58095092933194, 7.750502296931096)

(About 20 minutes by public transport or 24 minutes on foot from the venue.)

For more information, please contact :
Virginie SPEISSER / virginie.speisser@ipcms.unistra.fr